

Chad Reed wins at Georgia Dome

Chad Reed raced to his first AMA Supercross victory of the season in Race I on Feb. 22 beating Ryan Dungey in the first of two straight events at the Georgia Dome.

Reed, the Kawasaki rider from Dade City, Florida, led all 20 laps en route to his 44th career 450SX victory and first in Atlanta in 11 years. He has won at least one race in a record 11 straight seasons.

"It has been a long year for me," Reed said. "I always say you have to give yourself a good start to give yourself a shot at the win, and that is what I did tonight. I am excited to come back here next weekend and race for a win."

KTM's Dungey extended his points lead to 25 points. Honda's Trey Canard was third to move into second place in the standings.

"Being on the podium is important," Dungey said. "Consistency is key. I say it all of the time. We will keep plugging away and look for the win next week here."

Yamaha's Jeremy Martin raced to his second career Eastern Regional 250SX victory.

"What a great night for me and my team," Martin said. "That was an amazing, crazy race, and I am looking forward to coming back here next weekend."

Race II at the Georgia Dome: Ryan Dungey claimed his second win of the season. Dungey grabbed the hole shot in the 20 lap event. Den Roczen was second and Trey Canard was third. Dungey extended his lead in the 450SX class to 12 points over Roczen and Canard 23 points behind.
