Kyle Busch won the Heads Up Georgia 250 in the XFINITY Series on Saturday. It is his 77th XFINITY Series win and 1st of the year. He started from the pole and lead 119 of the 163 laps. Kyle Larson finished second, followed by Erik Jones, Paul Menard, Ty Dillon, Brad Keselowski, Daniel Suarez, Justin Allgaier, Elliott Sadler, and Jeb Burton. There were 5 cautions for 21 laps and 5 lead changes among 4 leaders.

John Hunter Nemechek won the Georgia 200 Camping World Truck series on Saturday. It is his 2nd career win, his 1st of 2016, and his first at Atlanta. At 18 years, 8 months and 16 days, Nemechek becomes the youngest NASCAR national series winner at Atlanta Motor Speedway.

Cameron Hayley finished second, followed by Timothy Peters, Daniel Hemric, Grant Enfinger,

Ben Rhodes, John Wes Townley, Parker Kligerman, Caleb Holman, and Spencer Gallagher. There were 5 cautions for 25 laps and the caution clock was used twice [for the first and third cautions]. There were 7 lead changes among 4 leaders.

A tip of the hat goes out to QuikTrip on their sponsorship of the race and honoring the Folds of Honor. The Folds of Honor Mission Statement is: Of the one million-plus dependents adversely affected by deployments, nearly nine out of 10 do not qualify for federal scholarship assistance.

Since 2007, the Folds of Honor has carried forth this singular, noble mission. To close the gap, providing educational support to spouses and children of America's fallen and wounded soldiers.
