

Excellent Fuel Mileage Propels Keselowski To Kentucky Win

Saving fuel from the start of the final green-flag run, Brad Keselowski held off Kevin Harvick and Kyle Busch to win Friday night's Feed the Children 300 Nationwide Series race at Kentucky Speedway on Friday, July 8th. In winning his first Nationwide race of the year and the 13th of his career, Keselowski beat runner-up Harvick to the finish line by 1.180 seconds. Busch rolled across the stripe 3.796 seconds behind the winner. Kyle Busch won another truck race on Thursday. Photos by MSA Staff.

