

Second NASCAR Hall Of Fame Class Officially Enshrined

Allison, Jarrett, Moore, Pearson, Petty Inducted Into NHOF

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (May 23, 2011) – With each win, and each championship, a legend grew. And now, those legends have a permanent home. The second class of the NASCAR Hall of Fame – champions all – captured over 350 victories and a dozen championships in NASCAR's premier series. The five inductees – Bobby Allison, Ned Jarrett, Bud Moore, David Pearson and Lee Petty – make up the second class of the NASCAR Hall of Fame in Charlotte, N.C., which were officially inducted, Monday, May 23.

"This is fast becoming a night we all look forward to on the calendar," said NASCAR Chairman and CEO Brian France, in his opening remarks during the Induction Ceremony. "To the second class, thank you for the memories and moments you gave this great sport." Photos courtesy of NASCAR Media.

