

1984 Honda RS750D

Country: Japan
 Engine: Air-cooled 45° Vee-twin four stroke
 Ignition: Capacitor discharge ignition (CDI)
 Power Rating: 101 b.h.p. @ 8,500 r.p.m.
 Bore x Stroke: 80.5 x 75.5 mm
 Displacement: 768.55cc (749cc + allowable AMA overbore)
 Valves: Four per cylinder, single overhead cam
 Fuel System: Two 38mm Keihin carburetors
 Transmission: Four speed
 Suspension: Front Showa Superbike forks, rear Showa single shock
 Brakes: Rear single disc
 Weight: Approx. 320 lbs.
 Top Speed: Depending on gearing - max 130 m.p.h.

Powered by a XLV750R based engine, this machine was specially built for flat-track racing. Factory Honda rider, Bubba Shobert, beat rival Harley-Davidson to win the #1 plate in 1984. These machines were so superior that the AMA made them use carburetor restrictors to slow them down. Honda withdrew from the series soon after. These machines appear occasionally at racetracks and continue to be competitive. See more at www.barbermuseum.org.

AdvoCare To Sponsor Labor Day Weekend NASCAR Sprint Cup Series Night Race At Atlanta Motor Speedway

AdvoCare International, LP, an award-winning, premier health and wellness company headquartered in Plano, TX., will be the title sponsor for Atlanta Motor Speedway's NASCAR Sprint Cup Series night race on Sept. 4, 2011.

The multi-year contract between AdvoCare and the Speedway calls for AdvoCare to sponsor the track's Labor Day Weekend NASCAR Sprint Cup Series night race in addition to being the official performance elite products of the Speedway. The partnership also adds to the strong AdvoCare history and relationship to both sports and motorsports. NASCAR figures utilizing AdvoCare products include Mark Martin, Richard Petty and NASCAR Camping World Truck Series veteran driver David Starr. The AdvoCare National Spokesperson is New Orleans quarterback Drew Brees.

"We recognize this as an extraordinary way to move our relationship with the motorsports community to the next level. This will be a great time for NASCAR fans to learn more about and benefit from the AdvoCare products and business opportunity. We are excited by what it will mean for everyone involved," said AdvoCare President and CEO Richard Wright.

AdvoCare is also a platinum sponsor of Operation Homefront, an organization dedicated to providing emergency assistance to those serving in the military and their families.

Since 1993, AdvoCare has offered general nutrition, weight loss, energy and sports performance products of the highest quality developed through comprehensive research and backed by a Scientific & Medical Advisory Board. AdvoCare offers more than 70 exclusive products and a business opportunity that empowers individuals to explore their ultimate potential. For more information on AdvoCare and/or this sponsorship, visit www.advocare.com or call 800-542-4800.

The Biggest Labor Day Celebration in the USA will be at Atlanta Motor Speedway on Labor Day Weekend when NASCAR Night Racing returns to Atlanta Sept. 2-4 for three NASCAR night races in one weekend.

Tickets for the AdvoCare 500 are on sale and priced as low as $39 or $19 for students. For more information or to purchase tickets, visit www.atlantamotorspeedway.com or call (877) 9-AMS-TIX.

ALTERNATORS

STARTERS

SPECIALIZING IN EXIDE BATTERIES, INDUSTRIAL ALTERNATORS, STARTERS & D.C. MOTORS

LEO J. CAGLIANI

770-941-0003

TERRY D. SMITH

7020 MABLETON PARKWAY • MABLETON, GA 30126