

Monsters Invade Music city once again

Story by Jenn McVay, photos by Leon McVay for MSA

The Amsoil series of Monster Jam Hosted by Diana Reed and John Saponaro took center stage at the Bridgestone arena in Nashville, TN over the weekend of January 7 & 8. Megalodon's Justin Sipes Dominated the Saturday event winning 5 of the 7 events. Megalodon collected enough points to take the lead in the overall season standings.

Grave Diggers Krysten Anderson First Event in a Monster Truck was Saturday. In the afternoon show she scored a perfect score in the freestyle event. Proving she is not riding on the coattails of her older brothers nor her father.

Another new comer to the sport is Alien Invasions Bernard Lyght. Lyght hails from Albany, GA. Before driving in Monster Jam Lyght was a stunt rider in the Nuclear Cowboyz Motorcycle Series. His most recent job was Marvel Universe Live as Spiderman.

Alien Invasion managed to place second in the Wheelie competition (only one point from being tied for first place).

Overall Season Standings:

- Megalodon 132
- Pirate's Curse 112
- Zombie 89
- Blue Thunder 83
- Alien Invasion 73
- El Toro Loco 70
- Grave Digger 70
- Monster Mutt Rottweiler 49
