FOUR WINS SO FAR THIS YEAR

made his way back into the top 10 and finished 7th.

Daniel Suárez scored his career-best Monster Energy NASCAR Cup finish. He led 14 laps and finished third. In addition to his third-place result, Suárez also held off Martin Truex Jr. to score his first stage win of the season during the second segment of the event. The result continues a recent stretch of success for the reigning NASCAR Xfinity Series champion, who has suddenly put together four consecutive top 10s.

The top ten finishers were: Matt Kenseth, second; Daniel Suarez, third; Denny Hamlin, fourth; Clint Bowyer, fifth; Kurt Busch, sixth; Kyle Busch; seventh; Ryan Blaney, eighth; AL Allmendinger, ninth; and Erik Jones, tenth.

One of the biggest stories of The Watkins Glen race revolved around the fans. For the third consecutive year in a row the reserved grandstand seats have sold out. Grandstand sellout represented close to 39,000 seats. With another 15,000 to 16,000 general admission seats and several thousand campers. Reserved camping at the track was sold out in December. Watkins Glen was voted "Best NASCAR Track" in the USA Today 10 Best Readers' Choice Awards for the second straight time.

Watkins Glen International is currently the only track to host North America's top three racing series: NASCAR's Cup Series, the IndyCar Series and the IMSA SportsCar Championship. WGI also hosts a variety of festivals and the also U.S. Vintage Grand Prix in October.
