

NHRA Mello Yello Drag Racing Series returns to Atlanta Dragway for 2013 season

The thrilling excitement and heart-pounding action of the NHRA Mello Yello Drag Racing Series thunders to Atlanta Dragway for the 33rd annual Summit Racing Equipment NHRA Southern Nationals May 3-5. The seventh event of the season will feature racing in Top Fuel, Funny Car and Pro Stock.

NHRA is offering Southern hospitality with a ticket program that families are sure to enjoy: Children 12 and younger will be admitted free into the general admission area at the Summit Racing Equipment NHRA Southern Nationals when accompanied by a paid adult.

At last year's thriller, Steve Torrence raced to his first Top Fuel win in his first final-round appearance in the 8,000-horsepower category; Ron Capps collected his first Atlanta Dragway Funny Car victory in his second final of the season.

Greg Anderson wheeled his Summit Racing-backed Pro Stocker to victory at his sponsor's race. Anderson will be looking for his fifth win at the facility, which would tie him with Warren Johnson for most Pro Stock titles at the track.

Again in 2013, the biggest names in the NHRA Mello Yello Drag Racing Series will blast to the finish line and keep fans on the edge of their seats. Among the Top Fuel stars who will be competing for a coveted NHRA Wally trophy at Georgia's House of Speed are seven-time NHRA Mello Yello world champion Tony Schumacher and fellow Don Schumacher Racing teammate and 2012 NHRA Mello Yello world champion Antron Brown.

Courtney Force, in her sophomore season in the Funny Car ranks, enjoyed early success this year with a win at the season opener in Pomona and hopes to add another win to her tally. Among those joining her in the quest for a Peach State victory will be Matt Hagan, Del Worsham and Bob Tasca III.

Defending NHRA Mello Yello Pro Stock world champion Allen Johnson will be aiming for a strong outing at a track that has long been a favorite for drivers in the ultracompetitive category, including Jeg Coughlin, Vincent Nobile and Mike Edwards.

As always, fans will have the opportunity to interact with drivers as they're granted an exclusive pit pass to the most powerful and sensory-filled motorsports attraction on the planet.

Pro qualifying will run at 4:30 and 6:30 p.m. on Friday, May 3, and 12:30 and 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 4. Final professional eliminations will begin at 11 a.m. on Sunday, May 5.
