Ultimate Super Late Model Series Opened Season with a Double Header Weekend

Story & photos: Phillip Prichard, MSA

Donald McIntosh continued his hot start of the 2015 season by winning his career first Ultimate Series event at North Georgia Speedway on Saturday, March 7. This was the Ultimate Series season opener. He started fourth on the grid and early in the 40-lap event he slipped back as far as eighth. On the 27th circuit he was running sixth and four laps later he took the lead and went on to take the win.

Derek Ellis was the fast qualifier at North Georgia with a lap of 13.078 seconds. Rambo Franklin took the lead on lap two and led until lap 22, when he had a driveshaft mechanical issue that would retire him for the evening. Casey Roberts, William Thomas and McIntosh battled for position all evening. On Lap 32, McIntosh took the lead. Seven caution flags slowed the race but added to the intense action. Finishing out the top were, William Thomas, Casey Roberts, David Payne and Derek Ellis.

Casey Roberts of Toccoa, GA led all 40 laps at Lavonia Speedway on Sunday, March 8 to earn the $4000 prize money. This was Roberts' 13th win in the series. Defending 2014

Ultimate Super Late Model Series Champion, Dennis "Rambo" Franklin finished second, with Jay Sessions, Dustin Mitchell and Hunter Peacock rounding out the top five.

Peach Bowl Speedway Reunion

The 26th annual reunion of the Peach Bowl Speedway drivers, wives, owners, mechanics, officials, and friends was held Sunday January 25, 2015 at the American Legion in Austell, GA.

Although it seems almost impossible to imagine now, from 1949 until 1972 there was an auto racing track less than 3 miles northwest of the heart of downtown Atlanta. Located at the corner of Howell Mill Road and Brady Avenue near the current location of the Northside Tavern, the Peach Bowl was a popular fixture on the local racing scene during the years of its operation.

In addition to the midget car racing, the Peach Bowl also hosted races featuring stock cars, modifieds, Grand National Sportman cars, jalopies and NASCAR Convertibles.
