

Results from 13th week of O'Reilly Auto Parts Friday Night Drags

Week 13 action of O'Reilly Auto Parts Friday Night Drags and Show-N-Shine got underway on the pit-lane drag strip at Atlanta Motor Speedway Friday night in the 16-week summer series.

David Clevenger of Griffin won for the fourth straight week and fifth in the past six in the Active Pest Control Pro Division. His souped-up red 1986 Chevrolet Corvette again was too much to handle for the rest of the division, as he knocked off Dale Rodgers of Oxford, who was driving a 1981 Pontiac Firebird, in the final race of the evening. Clevenger builds upon his sizeable lead in the division with just three weeks remaining in the season.

Meanwhile, Keith Johnson of Jenkinsburg was triumphant in his debut in the Summit Racing Equipment Sportsman Division. He drove his 1990 Ford Mustang to an impressive win, edging last week's winner, Flynt Biles, and his 1979 Ford Mustang.

In the Harding Plumbing, Heating and Cooling Domestic Division, James Manning of Stockbridge broke through for his first victory of the year. Manning survived five rounds of racing and polished off the night with a win over Hampton's Chris Morgan to claim the victory.

Other notable Week 13 winners include Kelly Kilbourne of McDonough in the Domestic Advanced Division, Robbie Blankenship of Jenkinsburg in the Dynamic Towing Street Outlaw Division, Jonathan Delcambre of McDonough in the HeadsUpGeorgia.com Street Modified Division and Shane Kirkland of Marietta in the MetroPCS Tuner Division.
