The 300 lap race ran 323 laps before the checkered flag.

In an early morning finish after 4 am, Bubba Pollard won the Snowflake 100. Two rain storms on Saturday afternoon, delayed the qualifying for the seventy-nine Snowflake Late Models, the truck race and the Snowflake 100. Augie Grill led the most laps and then Bullard Pollard and John Hunter Nemechek each led 14 laps each. Pollard would take the lead in the final laps away from Nemechek. Garrett Jones finished third, Harrison Burton (son of Jeff Burton) fourth and Dillon Oliver fifth.

Brandon Morris took advantage of lap traffic to overtake Patrick Thomas in the 50-lap Super Stock feature on Friday night. Thomas, who was racing for the first time a famous half-mile track, led most of the race but could not hold off Morris in the final two laps. David Mader III finished third, Bubba Winslow, fourth and Corbitt Moseley rounded out the top five.

Local Gulf Coast racer, Donnie Hamrac, held off drivers from across the US to win the 50-lap Modified feature at the Snowball derby. This was the second straight year that Hamrac took the win. Hamrac took the lead from Jim wall, the pole sitter on the initial start. After numerous cautions, Hamrac battled Joe Aramendia late in the race. The top five finishers were: Brian Nester, second; Kyle Purvis, third; Chris Cotto, fourth, and Rocky Rogers, fifth.

Fans are already looking ahead to the 48th Snowball Derby. Check out <http://www.5flagsspeedway.com/> for details.
