

Hayes places first in AMA Superbike event at Barber MP

Josh Hayes continues to flex his muscles as he dominates the races on the National Guard SuperBike circuit.

"I think we can get to a good place pretty quickly," Hayes said after the race, alluding to his team's slow start to the season and his newfound dominance.

His four-race winning streak comes after starting the season with 17th and 15th place finishes at Daytona.

Now in second place and just ten points out of first in the AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike standings, Hayes is on a hot streak and rising fast.

"It's a big testament to my team and the hard work we've put in," Hayes said.

"I went about as hard as I could go today," Hayes said. "Doing it after a hard day of racing yesterday was especially challenging."

Hayden said it was a "hard, hot race" that has prepared him for the rest of the season to come.

"It's what you expect," the second-place finisher said. "This was the best weekend we've had overall. We challenged Josh both races, and that's what we have to do to win one. Eventually, hopefully, we'll pull one off."
