

Racing and Rolling at Senoia Raceway Spring Fling

One hundred race teams packed the pit area Saturday night for the Spring Fling 2015 at Senoia Raceway. The racing action was intense from the drop of the first green flag and sometimes scary as three separate accidents resulted in race cars rolling over in spectacular crashes. Topping all the chaos was Winston's Michael Page as he claimed the $3000 prize winning the Spring Fling 40 for the Super Late Models.

Others claiming victories at the Bull Ring's special event included Senoia's Clint Smith in the Limited Late Models, Alabama's Dylan Knowles in the Crate Late Models, Carrollton's Dustin Smith in the Hobby Stock, Winford Minix of Senoia in the Bombers and Newnan's Brandon Bright in the Mini Stock. The official finish of the Battle of the B Cadet is pending the results of an engine protest. Jackson's Craig Scott was the winner, but second place finisher Blant Duke of Whitesburg protested the legality of his engine. Craig Scott's engine was found to be legal and was declared the official winner on Monday, May 4, 2015.
