

BROWN HONORED DURING GREAT SPORTS LEGENDS DINNER AT WALDORF-ASTORIA:

HE SAID, SHE SAID

"The Al-Anabi team left St. Louis with the points lead so with three races to go, we are in control of our own destiny, and that is how we want it. Our lead is three points bigger than it was when we started the Countdown, but losing in the second round at St. Louis was still a little disheartening because with Massey and Kalitta losing in the first round, we had a great opportunity to extend our points lead and widen the gap, but Sunday played out how it did. The Al-Anabi car is very strong right now, and we are very excited to be going to Reading this weekend. A lot depends on the weather in Reading, but if the weather cooperates, you might see some 3.69s or 3.68s (3.69-second passes or 3.68-second passes). Reading has the capability of being a throw-down race so we are going to be prepared for that possibility when we arrive. We want the Al-Anabi car to be ready because if there's an opportunity to get a national ET (elapsed time) record and pick up those extra 20 bonus points, we want to be the ones to do it." -- Shawn Langdon on retaking the Top Fuel points lead and the conditions at Maple Grove Raceway.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

7: Number of consecutive seasons Jack Beckman has won a Funny Car event in his eight-year Funny Car career. This streak is in jeopardy as Beckman has yet to win a points paying event this season with only three races remaining on the schedule. "We have yet to win a trophy this year and we're getting low on opportunities to do that," Beckman said. "We're not getting desperate. We're approaching it the same way. It is frustrating to be this deep into the season and not have a trophy. And when you get to Reading there are only 12 rounds left. It is put up or shut up time."
