

Joe Gibbs Racing dominates the Xfinity Series at Darlington

Story: Jenn McVay for MSA

Denny Hamlin took the pole at the 33rd annual VFW Sports Clips Help a Hero 200 in Darlington South Carolina. When the checkered flag dropped it was Denny Hamlin in victory lane in his retro #20, after a surprising last minute final lap around Kyle Bush. Not to mention only getting a partial fill up of fuel and scraping the wall, but he did have fresher tires in his favor.

It was an awesome evening for Joe Gibson Racing, his cars finished 1st, 2nd, 3rd. First place was #20 Danny Hamlin, second place was #54 Kyle Bush, third place was #18 Daniel Suarez.

This was Daniel Suarez's first career race at Darlington. Suarez won $100,000 from series sponsor Xfinity and its Dash-for-Cash four-race program, he also won two weeks ago at Bristol and has won it two of the three times he was eligible.

The question now is will Denny Hamlin or Kyle Bush take the checkered flag on Sunday at the Bojangles Southern 500?
