

Water Logged Memphis Hosts the PDRA and Street Outlaws

Story: Jenn McVay for MSA/Photos: Leon McVay

Millington, TN: August 22, 2015 In Memphis with rain in the air and talk of postponing the race the fans still came out to root for their favorite drivers. There were a few times that no one was sure if the drag race would even take place.

But after some lengthy delays they finally got the racing underway, the results are as followed: Jason Scruggs visited victory lane for a 4th time this 2015 season. Tommy Franklin got his 2nd win in his Switzer Dynamics in the Pro Nitrous series.

Pro Extreme Motorcycle racer Terry Schweigert got his first win since joining the PDRA. Now having the taste of victory, look for Schweigert to be coming for more.

The highlight of the weekend was when Street Outlaw drivers Chuck and Boosted decided to race and see who had bragging rights. And even though he gave it his all Boosted just couldn't take Chuck. The original drivers were going to be Chuck and Daddy Dave, but due to an extreme wreck the previous week Daddy Dave was unable to make it. He is said to be making a full recovery though. We want to wish him well and look forward to seeing him back on the track soon.

McKinney, Schramm, And Shannon Tops At Wilkesboro Dragway

Story/Photos: Kevin Thorne for MSA

Clyde Mckinney proved he isn't out of the points championship battle by taking the Top ET win Saturday night at Wilkesboro Dragway. With only two points races left, Mckinney is locked in a three way battle with Jr. Hodges and current points leader, Mckinney's son Mitchell. Clyde bested a hard charging Joe Julesrud for the win.

Modified ET saw Greg Schramm and former IHRA champion Kelly Stevens meet in the final round. Stevens gave it his all but Schramm put together a better package and took home the win.
