And so it went on. As the day warmed up and the track dried out racing picked up momentum. As soon as one was over, cars leave the track on one side of the track as the next group enters on the other. Warm up, race officials announce start and off they go.

A full day that went on well into the night. I enjoyed the day immensely. Went home with a little sunburn, muddy boots and clothes. If you went home clean you didn't have any fun.

Main Event (50 Laps – $6,000 to win): 1. Michael Page; 2. Ray Cook; 3. Austin Horton

Best quote at the end of the night from the Super Late Model winner; Michael Page: "Everybody's gotta remember this is dirt track racing. If they want to watch them follow the leader... Go to NASCAR across the street."
