

Victory Lane Interview With: Chase Elliott, Bill Elliott, and Rick Hendrick

Interview by WGS/ASAP Sports, Photos by MSA Staff

Q. The last stint, maybe the most perfect stint you've ever driven in your life, because you could not afford even one little bobble?

little better than us through that last one, but my team did a great job. Our NAPA Camaro was fast. It was fast enough, and guys stayed mistake-free today. I just had a good day on pit road, stayed mistake-free on the track, and track position was king.

CHASE ELLIOTT: No, Martin was really good. I thought he was maybe a Just appreciate all our partners. The NAPA Chevrolet had great power today.

The Hendrick engine shop is doing work, Hooters, Mountain Dew, KBB, Valvoline. Look forward to next week. Just nice to get out of the slide we were in. This past month and a half hasn't been any fun. Great way to rebound, and can't wait to get home and celebrate with my girls.

dad, which you told him you were going to do, but two and a half burnouts is a nice way to celebrate, isn't it?

CHASE ELLIOTT: Yeah, no, I'm sorry my burnout rated about a C-minus. I ran out of gas again. It happens, but we'll move on.

Q. Even better news, you had fuel for burnouts this year. One in front of your
