race, Power acknowledged he was at fault. He was able to recover and remain on the lead lap. He climbed up to the top 10 before making a major mistake with two laps to go. He locked up the rear which he admitted to doing over the course of the weekend. He finished 18th with his fellow Penske drivers finishing 1 (Pagnaud) 2 (Dixon) 3 (Rossi) and 4 (Newgarden).

Power is now 128 points back from the championship. His team mate and points leader Newgarden said about Power "with six races to go a guy like Will is capable of coming back and winning the championship." A driver of that caliber with 15 years of Indy knows how to do just that.
