

MotoAmerica Championship of Alabama

In the Liqui Moly Junior Cup, 14 year old Rocco Landers matched his age with 14 class victories in this season and the championship. The phenom won 14 of 17 races in the season, including Saturday's Sunday's races. Dominic Doyle finished second on both Saturday and Sunday. Benjamin Gloddy finished third on Sunday.

Franklin Armory/Graves Kawasaki rider Andrew Lee clinched the championship two weeks ago in New Jersey in the Stock 1000 class. He won both weekend races. He won 8 out 11 this season. Michael Gilbert and Stefano Mesa rounded out the podium on Sunday.

In the Twin Cup Championship, Sunday's third place finisher Alex Dumas took the top honors for the season. Chris Parrish won and Michael Barnes was second.

Barber Motorsports Park will host the Vintage Motorcycle Festival on October 4-6. Visit <https://barberracingevents.com/> for more details.

MotoAmerica has announced a tentative 2020 schedule with ten races. Barber Motorsports Park will be up first for a test, March 10-11 and for the championship September 17-20. Michelin Raceway Road Atlanta will be April 17-19.
